

Benefit Plans Plus Promotes Carrie Patterson to Senior

ST. LOUIS (September 22, 2010) As part of the long-term plan to strategically manage the growth and success of the firm, Benefit Plans Plus has promoted Carrie Patterson to Senior Retirement Plan Installation Specialist.

Patterson joined Benefit Plans Plus five years ago and is responsible for the set-up and installation of new retirement plan business. Patterson has been instrumental in the first impression that BPP has operationally with clients. She consistently receives rave reviews from our clients and vendors. She has more than ten years of experience in the employee retirement benefits area serving as a recordkeeper, pension clerk and pension administrator.

Patterson actively participates in BPP Ownership Thinking projects. She has helped improve efficiency and cut costs in many of BPP's core processes. She thrives when presented with challenges and enjoys solving problems. She is also an active member of Brown Smith Wallace's Social and Charitable Committee, acting as champion for the school supply drive each year.

Patterson resides in University City with her husband and pets.
